Published originally in 1971, Encyclopedia Judaica has been the leading source for information on the Jewish people, the Jewish faith, and the state of Israel.

Dr. Angela Kim Harkins received her B.A. in Theology, magna cum laude, from Loyola University of Chicago (1994) and completed a M.A. in Theology at the University of Notre Dame with a concentration in biblical languages (1997). After a year abroad at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem (Fulbright, 1997-1998), she completed her Ph.D. in Theology at the University of Notre Dame in the area Christianity and Judaism in Antiquity (2003). Her monograph on religious experience and the Hodayot is published in the series Ekstasis: Religious Experience from the Middle Ages (Berlin: de Gruyter, 2012) and is entitled “Reading with an ‘I’ to the Heavens.” In this study, she examines how the ritual...
